U.S. PROBATION OFFICER ACTION

This office recently received documents from U.S. Probation Officer (USPO) Stephen J. Roberts from the Northern District of Ohio Probation Office requesting that we submit a status report to Your Honor with regards to the defendant's performance on supervised release.

CAUSE

On June 11, 2008, Weatherly provided a urine specimen to the U.S. Probation Department, which tested positive for THC metabolite. These results were certified by Kroll Laboratories on June 21, 2008. In response to his drug use, USPO Stephen J. Roberts referred Weatherly to out-patient substance abuse treatment at a local treatment facility approved by the United States Probation Office. USPO Roberts will continue to monitor his adjustment closely and appropriate reports that follow.

On February 20, 2008, Weatherly commenced supervision in the Northern District of Ohio based on the geographical confines of his residence in that district. He is residing at 569 Willis Avenue, Youngstown, Ohio with his mother and two brothers. He is currently attending Youngstown State University as and is currently employed as a student assistant. He has reported as directed, submitted monthly reports in a timely manner, and has not sustain any new arrests while on supervision. To date his $100 special assessment fee has not been satisfied.

RECOMMENDATION AND JUSTIFICATION

In this case, the Probation Department respectfully recommends that Your Honor take no action at this time. The Probation Department will notify your Honor of any future noncompliant behavior. If Your Honor concurs with the recommendation, please indicate on the attached document.

Respectfully submitted,

Chris J. Stanton
